Interlocking tri-tone spheres of cadet blue, pewter and cream swirl together in an almost psychedelic effect on this Graphic Illusions rug. This dynamic runner rug features the exquisite texture of high-low cut pile construction and gorgeous hand carving, with a style reflecting the height of elegant retro fashion.

This gorgeous area rug features interlocking tri-tone spheres of varying sizes that create an optical illusion. It is powerloomed and hand-carved of 30% polypropylene and 70% acrylic. The construction creates high-low texture for even more interest and durability.

Nourison Home recommends only the use of Woolite or other compatible Carpet Cleaner for the cleaning of all rugs. The cleaning process should involve applying the Woolite with a soft bristle brush, rinsing the water, and extracting with a vacuum or extractor. The rug should then be dried by air or low temperature hair dryer. Please note, due to the daily wear and tear that floor rugs generally experience, our nine-year guarantee does not apply.
