Product Details

Considerate design features, including a knife edge and sled-style base, look great in any waiting environment while high-pressure laminate won't stain or scratch over time. Its powder-coated steel frame provides the strength and durability you need to stand up to high-traffic, heavy-use locations.

The Foundry Collection exudes modernity, characterized by its clean lines and contemporary design that align with current trends. Its streamlined appearance adds a sense of simplicity and sophistication to any setting. Built to last, these chairs boast durability, making them a reliable choice for various environments.
