Product Details

Infuse your waiting room with a sense of minimalist elegance with the Foundry Armless Guest Chair with Sled Base in Premium Upholstery. The premium upholstery and a powder-coated steel frame provides the strength and durability you need for long-term, high-traffic use. Considerate design features, such as a modern, sled-based design, allow this guest chair to blend into any reception or waiting room environment.

The Foundry Collection exudes modernity, characterized by its clean lines and contemporary design that align with current trends. Its streamlined appearance adds a sense of simplicity and sophistication to any setting. Built to last, these chairs boast durability, making them a reliable choice for various environments.

Purchase additional ganging brackets to attach multiple Foundry chairs together. Ganging brackets are currently incompatible with benches and rockers. Assembly Required
