Product Details

The Lexington bench collection provides versatile seating for all of your outdoor needs. This bench is perfect for public spaces including playgrounds, employee lunch areas, outdoor plaza or in front of stores. It features a rolled edge on the front of the seat for added comfort and can be securely mounted to the ground if desired.

This outdoor bench is constructed of steel with a thermoplastic coating. The UltraCoat finish gives a smooth and shiny appearance and is resistant to impact and sunlight ensuring years of carefree maintenance. This bench features a perforated design. The perforated metal is not only appealing to the eye, it also helps to prevent water or snow build-up on the seats.
