Product Details

For individuals who require multiple monitors, the Evolve four monitor arm is a godsend. When creating a masterpiece or working on a complicated project, the more screen space you have, the better. The Evolve ensures that you'll have plenty of desktop space not only on your screen, but also on your desk as the monitor mount keeps everything off your desk.

The Evolve four monitor arm is comprised of multiple parts and includes both a desk clamp and grommet mount. The maximum monitor width per monitor is 27" (bezel measure left to right). The maximum weight capacity per arm is 20 lbs. Each monitor can tilt +25/-90, and each monitor can rotate +90/-90. The pole measures 28", and a 180 lock-out feature prevent damage to monitors and support. The outside monitors can be extended 28.75", and the inner monitor can be extended 6".

Assembly required.
